

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
NASHVILLE DIVISION

LAURA PARDE, RACHEL DELAGUILA, and JEROME WILLIAMS, individually and on behalf of all other persons similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

MAGAZINES.COM, LLC,

Defendant.

Case No. _____

PLAINTIFFS' ORIGINAL CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

PLAINTIFFS' ORIGINAL CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

LAURA PARDE, RACHEL DELAGUILA, and JEROME WILLIAMS ("Plaintiffs"), individually and on behalf of all other persons similarly situated, bring this action against Defendant, MAGAZINES.COM, LLC ("Defendant") to stop Defendant's practice of making unsolicited telemarketing calls to the telephones of consumers nationwide and to obtain redress for all persons injured by their conduct. Plaintiffs, for their Complaint, allege as follows upon personal knowledge as to themselves and their own acts and experiences, and, as to all other matters, upon information and belief, including investigation conducted by their attorney.

INTRODUCTION

1. Defendant is a magazines sales company. In an effort to solicit potential customers, MAGAZINES.COM, LLC recruited, or employed call centers, to place telephone calls, en masse, to consumers across the country. On information and belief, Defendant and or its agents purchase phone number databases of consumers' contact information and creates an electronic database from which Defendant makes automated calls.

2. Defendant conducted wide scale telemarketing campaigns and repeatedly made unsolicited calls to consumers' telephones—whose numbers appear on the National Do Not Call Registry—without consent, all in violation of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227 (the “TCPA”).

3. The TCPA was enacted to protect consumers from unsolicited telephone calls exactly like those alleged in this case. In response to Defendant's unlawful conduct, Plaintiffs file the instant lawsuit and seek an injunction requiring Defendant to cease all unsolicited telephone calling activities to consumers registered on the National Do Not Call Registry (“DNC”) and an award of statutory damages to the members of the Class under the TCPA up to $500.00 per violation, together with court costs, reasonable attorneys' fees, and up to three times actual monetary loss damages (for knowing and/or willful violations).

4. By making the telephone calls at issue in this Complaint, Defendant caused Plaintiffs and the members of a putative Class of consumers (defined below) actual harm, including the aggravation, nuisance, and invasion of privacy that necessarily accompanies the receipt of unsolicited and harassing telephone calls, as well as the monies paid to their carriers for the receipt of such telephone calls.

5. Plaintiffs brings this class action against Defendant to secure redress because Defendant willfully violated the TCPA by causing unsolicited calls to be made to Plaintiffs and other class members' whose numbers are registered on the DNC.

PARTIES

6. Plaintiff LAURA PARDE is a natural person and citizen of Trenton, NE.

7. Plaintiff RACHEL DELAGUILA is a natural person and citizen of Fort St. Lucie, FL.

8. Plaintiff JEROME WILLIAMS is a natural person and citizen of Fairmont Heights, MD.

9. Defendant MAGAINZES.COM, LLC is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware. Defendant's principal place of business is in Franklin, Tennessee, and Defendant may be served with process by serving its registered agent, Albert J. Bart, at 150 3rd Ave. S., Ste. 1100, Nashville, TN 37201-2037.

10. Plaintiffs do not yet know the identity of Defendant's employees/agents that had direct, personal participation in or personally authorized the conduct found to have violated the statute and were not merely tangentially involved. They will be named, as numerous District Courts have found that individual officers/principals of corporate entities may be personally liable (jointly and severally) under the TCPA if they had direct, personal participation in or personally authorized the conduct found to have violated the statute, and were not merely tangentially involved. Texas v. American Blastfax, Inc., 164 F.Supp.2d 892, 899 (W.D. Tex. 2001) ("American Blastfax"); Sandusky Wellness Center, LLC v. Wagner Wellness, Inc., 2014 WL 1333472, at * 3 (N.D. Ohio March 28, 2014); Maryland v. Universal Elections, 787 F.Supp.2d 408, 415-16 (D.Md. 2011) ("Universal Elections"); Baltimore-Washington Tel Co. v. Hot Leads Co., 584 F.Supp.2d 736, 745 (D.Md. 2008); Covington & Burling v. Int'l Mktg. & Research, Inc., 2003 WL 21384825, at *6 (D.C.Super Apr. 17, 2003); Chapman v. Wagener Equities, Inc. 2014 WL 540250, at *16-17 (N.D.Ill. Feb. 11, 2014); Versteeg v. Bennett, Deloney & Noyes, P.C., 775 F.Supp.2d 1316, 1321 (D.Wy.2011) ("Versteeg"). Upon learning of the identities of said individuals, Plaintiffs will move to amend to name the individuals as defendants.

11. Whenever in this complaint it is alleged that Defendant committed any act or omission, it is meant that the Defendant's officers, directors, vice-principals, agents, servants, or employees, subsidiaries, or affiliates committed such act or omission and that at the time such act or omission was committed, it was done with the full authorization, ratification or approval of Defendant or was done in the routine normal course and scope of employment of the Defendant's officers, directors, vice-principals, agents, servants, or employees.

JURISDICTION & VENUE

12. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, as this action arises under the TCPA, which is a federal statute.

13. The Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because it conducts significant business in this District, and the unlawful conduct alleged in this Complaint occurred in, was directed to, and/or emanated from this District. Furthermore, Defendant's headquarters is located in this District, Defendant has purposefully availed itself of the protections of Tennessee law, and the exercise of personal jurisdiction over Defendant in this District does not offend traditional notions of fair play or substantial justice.

14. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because the wrongful conduct giving rise to this case occurred in, was directed to, and/or emanated from this District.

15. Defendant is subject to specific personal jurisdiction in this District because it has continuous and systematic contacts with this District through their telemarketing efforts that target this District, and the exercise of personal jurisdiction over Defendant in this District does not offend traditional notions of fair play or substantial justice.

LEGAL BASIS FOR THE CLAIMS

16. In 1991, Congress enacted the TCPA to regulate the explosive growth of the telemarketing industry. In doing so, Congress recognized that “[u]nrestricted telemarketing...can be an intrusive invasion of privacy...” Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, Pub. L. No. 102-243 § 2(5) (1991) (codified at 47 U.S.C. § 227).

17. Specifically, the TCPA restricts telephone solicitations (i.e., telemarketing) and the use of automated telephone equipment. The TCPA limits the use of automatic dialing systems, artificial or prerecorded voice messages, SMS text messages, and fax machines. It also specifies several technical requirements for fax machines, autodialers, and voice messaging systems—principally with provisions requiring identification and contact information of the entity using the device to be contained in the message.

18. In its initial implementation of the TCPA rules, the FCC included an exemption to its consent requirement for prerecorded telemarketing calls. Where the caller could demonstrate an “established business relationship” with a customer, the TCPA permitted the caller to place pre-recorded telemarketing calls to residential lines. The new amendments to the TCPA, effective October 16, 2013, eliminate this established business relationship exemption. Therefore, all pre-recorded telemarketing calls to residential lines and wireless numbers violate the TCPA if the calling party does not first obtain express written consent from the called party.

19. As of October 16, 2013, unless the recipient has given prior express written consent,<sup>1</sup> the TCPA and Federal Communications Commission (FCC) rules under the TCPA generally:

- Prohibits solicitors from calling residences before 8 a.m. or after 9 p.m., local time.
- Requires solicitors provide their name, the name of the person or entity on whose behalf the call is being made, and a telephone number or address at which that person or entity may be contacted.
- Prohibits solicitations to residences that use an artificial voice or a recording.
- Prohibits any call or text made using automated telephone equipment or an artificial or prerecorded voice to a wireless device or cellular telephone.
- Prohibits any call made using automated telephone equipment or an artificial or prerecorded voice to an emergency line (e.g., “911”), a hospital emergency number, a physician’s office, a hospital/health care facility/elderly room, a cellular telephone, or any service for which the recipient is charged for the call.

<sup>1</sup> Prior express written consent means “an agreement, in writing, bearing the signature of the person called that clearly authorizes the seller to deliver or cause to be delivered to the person called advertisements or telemarketing messages using an automatic telephone dialing system or an artificial or prerecorded voice, and the telephone number to which the signatory authorizes such advertisements or telemarketing messages to be delivered. 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(f)(8).”

- Prohibits autodialed calls that engage two or more lines of a multi-line business.
- Prohibits unsolicited advertising faxes.
- Prohibits certain calls to members of the Do-Not-Call Registry

20. Furthermore, in 2008, the FCC held that “a creditor on whose behalf an autodialed or prerecorded message call is made to a wireless number bears the responsibility for any violation of the Commission’s rules.” In re Rules and Regulations Implementing the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, Declaratory Ruling on Motion by ACA International for Reconsideration, 23 FCC Rcd. 559, 565, ¶ 10 (Jan. 4, 2008); Birchmeier v. Caribbean Cruise Line, Inc., 2012 WL 7062748 (Dec. 31, 2012).

21. Accordingly, the entity can be liable under the TCPA for a call made on its behalf, even if the entity did not directly place the call. Under those circumstances, the entity is deemed to have initiated the call through the person or entity.

22. There are just a handful of elements need to be proven for violations of the Do Not Call provision of the TCPA.

A. DO NOT CALL VIOLATIONS OF THE TCPA

23. More Than One Call within Any 12 Month Period. 47 U.S.C. § 227(c) provides that any “person who has received more than one telephone call within any 12-month period by or on behalf of the same entity in violation of the regulations prescribed under this subsection may” bring a private action based on a violation of said regulations, which were promulgated to protect telephone subscribers’ privacy rights to avoid receiving telephone solicitations to which they object.

24. Calls to Residential Lines on the Do Not Call List. The TCPA’s implementing regulation—47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(c)—provides that “[n]o person or entity shall initiate any telephone solicitation” to “[a] residential telephone subscriber who has registered his or her telephone number on the national do-not-call registry of persons who do not wish to receive telephone solicitations that is maintained by the federal government.” See 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(c).

25. Or, Wireless Lines on the Do Not Call List. Owners of wireless telephone numbers (aka mobile or cellular phones) receive the same protections from the Do Not Call provision as owners or subscribers of wireline (“landline”) phone numbers. 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(e), provides that 47 C.F.R. §§ 64.1200(c) and (d) “are applicable to any person or entity making telephone solicitations or telemarketing calls to wireless telephone numbers to the extent described in the Commission’s Report and Order, CG Docket No. 02-278, FCC 03-153, ‘Rules and Regulations Implementing the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991,’” which the Report and Order, in turn, provides as follows:

The Commission’s rules provide that companies making telephone solicitations to residential telephone subscribers must comply with time of day restrictions and must institute procedures for maintaining do-not-call lists. For the reasons described above, we conclude that these rules apply to calls made to wireless telephone numbers. We believe that wireless subscribers should be afforded the same protections as wireline subscribers.

26. The Affirmative Defense of Prior Express Consent. Defendant has the burden to prove it has obtained the subscriber’s prior express invitation or permission. Such permission must be evidenced by a signed, written agreement between the consumer and seller which states that the consumer agrees to be contacted by this seller and includes the telephone number to which the calls may be placed. 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(c)(2)(ii).

COMMON FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

27. Defendant is a magazine sales company. During and after 2014, in an effort to solicit potential customers, Defendant began making telephone calls, en masse, to consumers across the country. On information and belief Defendant and or its agents purchase “leads” containing consumer’s contact information and creates an electronic database from which Defendant makes automated calls.

28. Defendant knowingly made these telemarketing calls without the prior express written consent of the call recipients, and knowingly continue to call them after requests to stop. As such, Defendant not only invaded the personal privacy of Plaintiffs and members of the putative Class, but also intentionally and repeatedly violated the TCPA.

FACTS SPECIFIC TO PLAINTIFF LAURA PARDE

29. On or about October 5, 2008, Plaintiff Parde registered her cellular phone number with the area code (308) and ending in 2857 with the National Do Not Call Registry.

30. Plaintiff Parde is the regular carrier and exclusive user of the telephone assigned the number ending in 2857. The number is assigned to a cellular telephone service for which Plaintiff Parde is charged for incoming calls pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1).

31. Beginning on or about September 2014, Plaintiff Parde began receiving calls on her cellular telephone from the number (308) 340-2857, claiming to be Defendant, identified simply as “Magazines.com.”

32. Plaintiff Parde never had a business relationship with Defendant.

33. Plaintiff Parde never provided Defendant with prior consent or invitation to contact her on her phone via a text message or telephone call.

34. Nonetheless, Defendant called Plaintiff Parde over 100 times on her phone during a twelve-month period to magazines.

35. Plaintiff Parde specifically told Defendant to stop calling. Yet, the calls continued.

36. Defendant’s calls constituted calls that were not for emergency purposes as defined by 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1(A)(i).

37. Defendant’s unsolicited telemarketing calls caused Plaintiff Parde extreme aggravation and occupied her telephone line.

38. Plaintiff Parde has reason to believe Defendant called thousands of telephone customers listed on the Do Not Call Registry to market their products and services.

39. Plaintiff's overriding interest is ensuring Defendant cease all illegal telemarketing practices and compensates all members of the Plaintiff Class for invading their privacy in the manner the TCPA was contemplated to prevent.

40. In order to redress injuries caused by Defendant's violations of the TCPA, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and a class of similarly situated individuals, bring suit under the TCPA, 47 U.S.C. § 227, et seq., which prohibits certain unsolicited calls voice and text to individuals whose numbers are registered on the Do Not Call Registry.

41. On behalf of the Plaintiff Class, Plaintiff seeks an injunction requiring Defendant to cease all illegal telemarketing and spam activities and an award of statutory damages to the class numbers, together with costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

FACTS SPECIFIC TO PLAINTIFF RACHEL DELAGUILA

42. On or about October 18, 2011, Plaintiff Delaguila registered her cellular phone number with the area code (772) and ending in 3035 with the National Do Not Call Registry.

43. Plaintiff Delaguila is the regular carrier and exclusive user of the telephone assigned the number ending in 3035. The number is assigned to a cellular telephone service for which Plaintiff Delaguila is charged for incoming calls pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1).

44. Beginning in the fall of 2014, Plaintiff Delaguila began receiving calls on her cellular telephone from the number (614) 335-6121, claiming to be Defendant, identified simply as "Magazines.com."

45. Plaintiff Delaguila never had a business relationship with Defendant.

46. Plaintiff Delaguila never provided Defendant with prior consent or invitation to contact her on her phone via a text message or telephone call.

47. Nonetheless, Defendant called Plaintiff Delaguila over 100 times on her phone during a twelve-month period to magazines.

48. Plaintiff Delaguila specifically told Defendant to stop calling. Yet, the calls continued.

49. Defendant's calls constituted calls that were not for emergency purposes as defined by 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A)(i).

50. Defendant's unsolicited telemarketing calls caused Plaintiff Delaguila extreme aggravation and occupied her telephone line.

51. Plaintiff Delaguila has reason to believe Defendant called thousands of telephone customers listed on the Do Not Call Registry to market their products and services.

52. Plaintiff's overriding interest is ensuring Defendant cease all illegal telemarketing practices and compensates all members of the Plaintiff Class for invading their privacy in the manner the TCPA was contemplated to prevent.

53. In order to redress injuries caused by Defendant's violations of the TCPA, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and a class of similarly situated individuals, bring suit under the TCPA, 47 U.S.C. § 227, et seq., which prohibits certain unsolicited calls voice and text to individuals whose numbers are registered on the Do Not Call Registry.

54. On behalf of the Plaintiff Class, Plaintiff seeks an injunction requiring Defendant to cease all illegal telemarketing and spam activities and an award of statutory damages to the class numbers, together with costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

FACTS SPECIFIC TO PLAINTIFF JEROME WILLIAMS

55. On or about January 27, 2006, Plaintiff Williams registered his cellular phone number with the area code (202) and ending in 5658 with the National Do Not Call Registry.

56. Plaintiff Williams is the regular carrier and exclusive user of the telephone assigned the number ending in 5658. The number is assigned to a cellular telephone service for which Plaintiff Williams is charged for incoming calls pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1).

57. Beginning in the winter of 2015, Plaintiff Williams began receiving calls on his cellular telephone from the number (315) 465-0021, claiming to be Defendant, identified simply as “Magazines.com.”

58. Plaintiff Williams never had a business relationship with Defendant.

59. Plaintiff Williams never provided Defendant with prior consent or invitation to contact him on his phone via a text message or telephone call.

60. Nonetheless, Defendant called Plaintiff Williams an estimated 10 times on his phone during a twelve-month period to magazines.

61. Plaintiff Williams specifically told Defendant to stop calling. Yet, the calls continued.

62. Defendant’s calls constituted calls that were not for emergency purposes as defined by 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A)(i).

63. Defendant’s unsolicited telemarketing calls caused Plaintiff Williams extreme aggravation and occupied his telephone line.

64. Plaintiff Williams has reason to believe Defendant called thousands of telephone customers listed on the Do Not Call Registry to market their products and services.

65. Plaintiff’s overriding interest is ensuring Defendant cease all illegal telemarketing practices and compensates all members of the Plaintiff Class for invading their privacy in the manner the TCPA was contemplated to prevent.

66. In order to redress injuries caused by Defendant’s violations of the TCPA, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and a class of similarly situated individuals, bring suit under the TCPA, 47

U.S.C. § 227, et seq., which prohibits certain unsolicited calls voice and text to individuals whose numbers are registered on the Do Not Call Registry.

67. On behalf of the Plaintiff Class, Plaintiff seeks an injunction requiring Defendant to cease all illegal telemarketing and spam activities and an award of statutory damages to the class numbers, together with costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

STANDING

68. Plaintiffs have standing to bring this suit on behalf of themselves and the members of the class under Article III of the United States Constitution because Plaintiffs' claims state: (a) a valid injury in fact; (b) an injury which is traceable to the conduct of Defendant; and (c) is likely to be redressed by a favorable judicial decision. See Spokeo v. Robins, 578 U.S. __ (2016) at 6; Lujan v. Defenders of Wildlife, 504 U.S. 555, 560 (1992).

A. INJURY IN FACT

69. Plaintiffs have standing to bring this suit on behalf of themselves and the members of the class under Article III of the United States Constitution because Plaintiffs' claims state: (a) a valid injury in fact; (b) an injury which is traceable to the conduct of Defendant; and (c) is likely to be redressed by a favorable judicial decision. See Spokeo v. Robins, 578 U.S. __ (2016) at 6; Robins v. Spokeo, 867 F.3d 1108 (9th Cir. 2017) (cert denied. 2018 WL 491554, U.S., Jan. 22 2018); Lujan v. Defenders of Wildlife, 504 U.S. 555, 560 (1992); and Chen v. Allstate Inc. Co., 819 F.3d 1136 (9th Cir. 2016).

70. Plaintiffs' injuries must be both "concrete" and "particularized" in order to satisfy the requirements of Article III of the Constitution. (Id.)

71. For an injury to be concrete it must be a de facto injury, meaning it actually exists. In the present case, Plaintiffs took the affirmative step of enrolling themselves on the National Do-Not-Call Registry for the purpose of preventing marketing calls to their telephones. Such telemarketing calls are a nuisance, an invasion of privacy, and an expense to Plaintiffs. See Soppet

v. enhanced Recovery Co., LLC, 679 F.3d 637, 638 (7th Cir. 2012). All three of these injuries are present in this case. (See also Chen v. Allstate Inc. Co., 819 F.3d 1136 (9th Cir. 2016).)

72. Furthermore, the Third Circuit recently stated, Congress found that “[u]nsolicited telemarketing phone calls or text messages, by their nature, invade the privacy and disturb the solitude of their recipients,” Van Patten, 847 F.3d at 1043, and sought to protect the same interests implicated in the traditional common law cause of action. Put differently, Congress was not inventing a new theory of injury when it enacted the TCPA. Rather, it elevated a harm that, while “previously inadequate in law,” was of the same character of previously existing “legally cognizable injuries.” Spokeo, 136 S.Ct. at 1549. Spokeo addressed, and approved, such a choice by Congress. Susinno v. Work Out World Inc., No. 16-3277, 2017 WL 2925432, at *4 (3d Cir. July 10, 2017).

73. For an injury to be particularized means that the injury must affect the plaintiffs in a personal and individual way. See Spokeo at 7. Furthermore, Plaintiffs are the persons who pay for the phone, and are the regular carrier and user of the phone. All of these injuries are particular to Plaintiffs.

B. TRACEABLE TO THE CONDUCT OF EACH SEPARATE DEFENDANT

74. Plaintiffs must allege at the pleading stage of the case facts to show that their injury is traceable to the conduct of Defendant. In this case, Plaintiffs satisfy this requirement by alleging that Defendant, and/or agents of Defendant on behalf of Defendant, placed illegal calls to Plaintiffs’ phone.

75. In the instant case, Defendant placed calls to Plaintiffs’ wireless/cellular phone on multiple occasions.

C. INJURY LIKELY TO BE REDRESSED BY A FAVORABLE JUDICIAL OPINION

76. The third prong to establish standing at the pleadings phase requires Plaintiffs to allege facts to show that the injury is likely to be redressed by a favorable judicial opinion. In the present case, Plaintiffs' Prayers for Relief include a request for damages for each call made by Defendant, as authorized by statute in 47 U.S.C. § 227. The statutory damages were set by Congress and specifically redress the financial damages suffered by Plaintiffs and the members of the putative class. Furthermore, Plaintiffs' Prayers for Relief request injunctive relief to restrain Defendant from the alleged abusive practices in the future. The award of monetary damages and the order for injunctive relief redress the injuries of the past, and prevent further injury in the future.

77. Because all standing requirements of Article III of the U.S. Constitution have been met, as laid out in Spokeo, Inc. v. Robins, 578 U.S. ____ (2016) and in the context of a TCPA claim, as explained by the Ninth Circuit in Chen v. Allstate Inc. Co., 819 F.3d 1136 (9th Cir. 2016), Plaintiffs have standing to sue Defendant on the stated claims.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

A. CLASS ALLEGATIONS

78. Plaintiffs bring this action pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a), (b)(2), and (b)(3) on behalf of themselves and the following class defined as follows (the "Class"):

"DNC<sup>2</sup> Class": All individuals in the United States who: (1) received more than one telephone call made by or on behalf of Defendant within a 12-month period; and, (2) to a telephone number that had been registered with the National Do Not Call Registry for at least 30 days.

79. The following individuals are excluded from the Class: (1) any Judge or Magistrate presiding over this action and members of their families; (2) Defendant, Defendant's subsidiaries, parents, successors, predecessors, and any entity in which Defendant or their parents have a controlling interest, and its current or former employees, officers, and directors; (3) Plaintiffs' counsel and Defendant's counsel; (4) persons who properly execute and file a timely request for exclusion from the Class; (5) the legal representatives, successors or assigns of any such excluded persons; (6) persons whose claims against Defendant have been fully and finally adjudicated and/or released; and (7) individuals for whom Defendant have record of consent to place telemarketing calls.

80. This suit seeks only damages, statutory penalties, and injunctive relief for recovery of economic injury on behalf of the Class, and it expressly is not intended to request any recovery for personal injury and claims related thereto.

81. Plaintiffs reserve the right to expand the Class definitions to seek recovery on behalf of additional persons as warranted as facts are learned in further investigation and discovery.

82. Plaintiffs and members of the Class were harmed by Defendant's acts in at least the following ways: Defendant, either directly or through agents, illegally contacted Plaintiff and the Class members via their telephones, after Plaintiffs and the Class members took the affirmative step of registering their numbers on the DNC, and/or contacted Plaintiffs and members of the Class using a pre-recorded voice for telemarketing purposes without first obtaining prior consent.

B. NUMEROSITY

83. The exact size of the Class is unknown and not available to Plaintiffs at this time, but it is clear individual joinder is impracticable.

84. On information and belief, Defendant made telephone calls to thousands of consumers who fall into the definition of the Class. Members of the Class can be easily identified through Defendant's records.

C. COMMONALITY AND PREDOMINANCE

85. There are many questions of law and fact common to the claims of Plaintiffs and the Class, and those questions predominate over any questions that may affect individual members of the Class.

86. Common questions for the Class include, but are not necessarily limited to the following:

- a. Whether Defendant's conduct violated the TCPA;
- b. Whether Defendant systematically made telephone calls to consumers who did not previously provide Defendant and/or their agents with prior express written consent to receive such phone calls after October 16, 2013;
- c. Whether Defendant systematically made telephone calls to consumers whose telephone numbers were registered with the National Do Not Call Registry;
- d. Whether members of the Class are entitled to up to three times actual monetary loss based on the willfulness of Defendant's conduct;
- e. Whether Defendant and its agents should be enjoined from engaging in such conduct in the future.

D. TYPICALITY

87. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of the claims of the other members of the Class.

88. Plaintiffs and the Class sustained damages as a result of Defendant's uniform wrongful conduct during transactions with Plaintiffs and the Class.

E. ADEQUATE REPRESENTATION

89. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the Class, and have retained counsel competent and experienced in complex class actions.

90. Plaintiffs have no interest antagonistic to those of the Class, and Defendant have no defenses unique to Plaintiffs.

F. POLICIES GENERALLY APPLICABLE TO THE CLASS

91. This class action is appropriate for certification because the Defendant has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class as a whole, thereby requiring the Court's imposition of uniform relief to ensure compatible standards of conduct toward the Class members, and making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the Class as a whole.

92. Defendant's practices challenged herein apply to and affect the Class' members uniformly, and Plaintiffs' challenge of those practices hinges on Defendant's conduct with respect to the Class as a whole, not on facts or law applicable only to Plaintiffs.

G. SUPERIORITY

93. This case is also appropriate for class certification because class proceedings are superior to all other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy given that joinder of all parties is impracticable.

94. The damages suffered by the individual members of the Class will likely be relatively small, especially given the burden and expense of individual prosecution of the complex litigation necessitated by Defendant's actions.

95. Thus, it would be virtually impossible for the individual members of the Class to obtain effective relief from Defendant's misconduct.

96. Even if members of the Class could sustain such individual litigation, it would still not be preferable to a class action, because individual litigation would increase the delay and expense to all parties due to the complex legal and factual controversies presented in this Complaint.

97. By contrast, a class action presents far fewer management difficulties and provides the benefits of single adjudication, economy of scale, and comprehensive supervision by a single court. Economies of time, effort and expense will be fostered, and uniformity of decisions ensured.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
VIOLATION OF TCPA, 47 U.S.C. § 227
(“DNC Claim” On behalf of Plaintiffs and the DNC Class)

98. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference each preceding paragraph as though set forth at length herein.

99. 47 U.S.C. § 227(c) provides that any “person who has received more than one telephone call within any 12-month period by or on behalf of the same entity in violation of the regulations prescribed under this subsection may” bring a private action based on a violation of said regulations, which were promulgated to protect telephone subscribers’ privacy rights to avoid receiving telephone solicitations to which they object.

100. The TCPA’s implementing regulation—47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(c)—provides that “[n]o person or entity shall initiate any telephone solicitation” to “[a] residential telephone subscriber who has registered his or her telephone number on the national do-not-call registry of persons who do not wish to receive telephone solicitations that is maintained by the federal government.” See 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(c).

101. Defendant violated 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(c) by initiating, or causing to be initiated, telephone solicitations to wireless and residential telephone subscribers such as Plaintiffs and the DNC Class members who registered their respective telephone numbers on the National Do Not Call Registry, a listing of persons who do not wish to receive telephone solicitations that is maintained by the federal government.

102. Defendant made more than one unsolicited telephone call to Plaintiffs and members of the Class within a 12-month period without their prior express consent to place such calls. Plaintiffs and members of the DNC Class never provided any form of consent to receive telephone calls from Defendant do not have a record of consent to place telemarketing calls to them.

103. Defendant violated 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5) because Plaintiffs and the DNC Class members received more than one telephone call in a 12-month period made by or on behalf of Defendant in violation of 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200, as described above. As a result of Defendant's conduct as alleged herein, Plaintiffs and the DNC Class suffered actual damages and, under section 47 U.S.C. § 227(c), are each entitled, inter alia, to receive up to $500 in damages for such violations of 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200.

104. To the extent Defendant's misconduct is determined to be willful and knowing, the Court should, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5), treble the amount of statutory damages recoverable by the members of the Class.

ATTORNEY'S FEES

105. Each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs is re-alleged as if fully rewritten herein.

106. Plaintiffs are entitled to recover reasonable attorney fees under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and requests the attorneys' fees be awarded.

JURY DEMAND

107. Plaintiffs, individually and on behalf of the Class, demand a jury trial on all issues triable to a jury.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs, individually and on behalf of the Class, pray for the following relief:

- (a) An order certifying the DNC Class as defined above, appointing Plaintiffs as the representative of the Class, and appointing his counsel, Hughes Ellzey, LLP and Kay Griffin, PLLC as lead Class Counsel;
- (b) An award of actual and statutory damages for each and every negligent violation to each member of the Class pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3)(B);
- (c) An award of actual and statutory damages for each and every knowing and/or willful violation to each member of the Class pursuant to 47 U.S.C § 227(b)(3)(B);

- (d) An injunction requiring Defendant and Defendant's agents to cease all unsolicited telephone calling activities, and otherwise protecting the interests of the Class, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3)(A);
- (e) Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest on monetary relief;
- (f) An award of reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs; and
- (g) All other and further relief as the Court deems necessary, just, and proper.
